Heard Shri Manindra Shrivastava, counsel for the petitioner and Shri Ayaz Naved, Govt. Advocate, for the State/respondents.

The petitioner by this petition filed under Section 227 of the Constitution of India has challenged the order dated 07/06/2002 passed in Original Application No.559 of 2002 by the Madhya Pradesh State Administrative Tribunal, Raipur Bench by which the interim relief sought for by the petitioner was rejected by the Tribunal observing that since the petitioner has already been suspended and by the interim order suspension order cannot be stayed.

We have heard learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and learned Govt. Advocate appearing for the State.

Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner is not able to point out any illegality or infirmity in the impugned order. The petitioner was placed under suspension on 13/03/2002 in pursuance of some lapses on the part of the petitioner that he was not able to supervise the work and get the things executed in time. Therefore, we do not find any illegality or infirmity in the order of the learned Tribunal and there is no force in this petition. However, since more than one year three months have elapsed after suspension of the petitioner, it is expected that the concerned authority will expedite the disciplinary proceedings and conclude the same as early as possible.

With this observation, the petition is dismissed.
